SHOW GRACE...

TO YOURSELF AND TO OTHERS. WHEN THINGS DO NOT GO AS PLANNED, USE IT AS AN OPPORTUNITY TO LEARN, GROW AND MOVE FORWARD.

BACK TO SCHOOL PREPAREDNESS.....

- Reset Routines: adjust bedtime & wake-up schedules now
- Create A Study Zone: set up a quiet, organized space for homework
- Healthy Habits: encourage 8-10 hours of sleep, balanced meals and activity
- Create Schedule: put together a monthly calendar for ALL family members - to avoid confusion or stress - make sure everyone can see it

ATTN: Publication deadline is FRI, 2 pm for all ads/info to be submitted to be published in the following Wed print - no exceptions.

When responding to an ad - be mindful of the time you call/text - not everyone has the same schedule and when you call/text late at night, it is troublesome. Some people must keep their phones on during their sleep time for emergency contact purposes.....please be respectful. Thank you, Capri except for Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's and always closed 2 weeks at the end of every year.

Your Round-Up is open ALL Holidays

I'd LOVE to be out galavanting in a hippy van (but I'll settle for my amazingly cool Jeep).....but I choose to keep a consistent and easy to remember schedule for YOU (see box to left).

Deadline is EVERY Friday, 2 pm - NO EXCEPTIONS.

If something comes up and I need to be closed, I try to give adequate notice.....sometimes emergencies, last-minute fishing trips with the hubs and/or the monthly adventure trips we take do happen quickly.

Dropbox, email, voicemail & website are ALWAYS available!
Thank you - Capri

There are FOUR Round-Up publications.

The Bench Nobody Notices

Nearly every park has one. A simple bench. Most of us walk right past it without giving it a second thought. Have you ever stopped to wonder who decided to put it there? Someone imagined a tried traveler. A grandparent watching children play. A couple sharing a quiet conversation. A parent tying a child's shoe. Someone simply needing a moment to think.

Someone believed people occasionally need a place to pause. Perhaps that's why benches matter. They quietly remind us that not every pathway asks us to keep walking. Some ask us to stop. To breathe. To listen. To notice the things we often miss when we're focused only on getting somewhere else.

It's interesting.....the bench doesn't change the park. It changes the way we experience it. Maybe life works that way too. Take a few minutes this week. Sit somewhere. Look around. You just might discover that the world has been patiently waiting for you to notice it.

Crosswords, Word Search, Sudoku, etc are all placed in Your Round-Up as space allows. I recognize that they are a favorite and I do my very best to ensure they are in each publication. But, please know that if there is a time when you do not see one of them, or even sometimes none of them, it is simply a space issue. I cannot simply add a page here and there - it is four full pages at a time. I greatly appreciate each and every one of you and strive to give you the very best publication that I can, each and every week. Thank you, Capri. (YRUufn)

Three men were waiting outside a hospital delivery room. After awhile, a nurse came into the waiting room and said, "Congratulations, Mr. Brown, you're the father of twins!" "Well, what a coincidence," said Mr. Brown. "I work for the Minnesota Twins baseball team!"

Soon the nurse came into the waiting room again and said, "Congratulations, Mr. Green! You're the father of triplets!" "Well, what a coincidence," said Mr. Green. "I work for the 3-M Corporation!"

The third man in the waiting room got up from his chair and started to leave. The nurse saw him and said, "Wait, sir, you can't go yet. Your wife hasn't delivered! Why are you leaving now?" The man turned around and said, "I'm going to find a second job because I work for the 7-Up Company!"

Fran Bristow

December 3, 1933 - April 15, 2026

Friends and family are invited to celebrate the life of Fran Bristow. Join us on Aug 27, 1 pm - Eagles Lodge, 235 NE 4th St. Luncheon provided.

Debra Reynvaan

May 28, 1960 - July 27, 2026

Memorial service to be held Aug 21, 1 pm, Eagles Lodge, 235 NE 4th St.

Robert "Bob" Wolverton, Sr.

March 2, 1937 - August 5, 2026

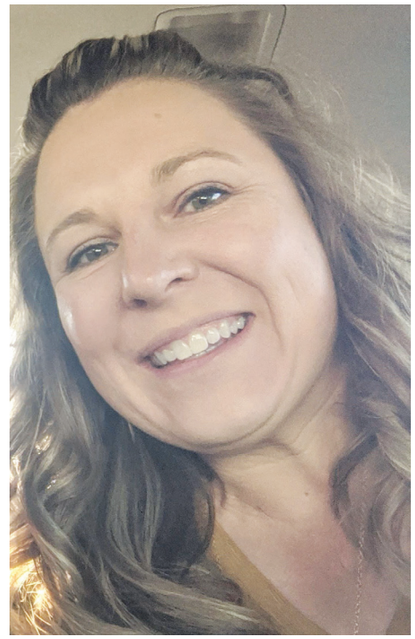

Bob was an avid pilot who loved horses, kind people, farming and tractors. He grew up in Colorado and joined the military at 17. Upon passing the Air Force physical exam, he said, "Wait, I'm here to join the Marines," but they said, "No you're not, son!" And so began Dad's time in the Air Force and Air National Guard, and his lifelong love affair with aviation. He pursued his private pilot's license in Anchorage, where he met our mother Joanne and had us kids, Kris and Bob Jr. We moved to Prineville and, in 1968, bought the house where Dad passed away last week, at home. In the Air Force, Dad had been awarded Airman of the Month repeatedly. In documents found in his lock box, he'd been praised for qualities of quiet good service, solid skills, and leading by example. This was echoed later in recommendations for promotion in his job as electrician and maintenance man with the Crook County School District. Highly regarded by the community, his family, his compadres in the Experimental Aircraft Association, and his neighbors, our dad will be missed. But look up as he flies off on a new adventure. Keep your wings level, Bob!

Memorial & Celebration of Life at Ochoco West Clubhouse, August 22, 3 pm. In lieu of flowers, donations to charity of choice appreciated.

Katie Nicole Fuller

February 8, 1985 - July 1, 2026

Katie Nicole Fuller of Prineville, passed away on July 1, 2026, at the age of 41. Born in Casper, Wyoming on Feb 8, 1985, Katie lived a life marked by boundless warmth, joy and unwavering kindness. Known to all as someone who always had a smile on her face, Katie was the kind of person who would drop anything to lend a hand to anyone in need. Her compassionate heart and generous spirit made the world around her a brighter place.

Marrying Roy Fuller on Aug 14, 2010, they started building their life together. Katie's love for life was most evident in her loving devotion to her family, especially her children, Lamon and Kaylynn. They meant the absolute world to her. Her passion and warmth extended to her love for animals - a joy she proudly passed down to her kids, especially through their shared involvement in 4H, where memories were made and values were taught that will last a lifetime for them. Katie was also heavily involved with her church community at Our Saviors Lutheran Church in Prineville and Cursillo Community of Eastern Oregon.

Katie was well known for working at Hometown Animal Hospital for over 20 years. A memorable time at Whispering Pine Funeral Home and was currently working as a Paraprofessional with Student Success Center at Barnes Butte Elementary where she was loved deeply by the students and staff.

Katie will be remembered for her vibrant energy and smile. That was one thing everyone could count on was that smile she'd bring into any room or situation. She had a selfless willingness to help others, and the fierce love she had for her family and friends will never be forgotten. There aren't enough words to describe the impact Katie had on all those she encountered in life, and those she touched will never forget her warmth, compassion and loving spirit that she openly shared with all.

Katie is survived and deeply missed by husband, Roy Fuller, their two children, Lamon and Kaylyn Fuller of Prineville; parents Matt and Kim Griffin of Prineville; Aunt Threasa Griffin; brother Cole (Kelly) Griffin of Prineville; niece Macie and nephew Miles Griffin; grandparents Alta Griffin and Marion Barton; mother-in-law, Sandy Fuller. Along with the many loving relatives, friends and a community whose lives were made better simply by knowing her and seeing her bright smile light up any room.

Service will be August 29, 1pm at Crook County High School Auditorium. If you have one, wear your Katie pin.

Memorials can be made for her children, The Fuller Family, Lacey McBeth Madden, Cursillo Community of Eastern Oregon or Crook County 4H.

Serenity Now - Massage Therapy is now open. Owner, Erin, is a native to Oregon and has lived in Prineville most of her life. She has two amazing kids: Blake (13) and Brooklyn (9).

Erin graduated from Oregon State where she earned her bachelor's degree in human services in 2006. She decided to go back to school when she was in her 30s and a mom to her two kids and pursue massage therapy. She wanted to work with people and learn a skill that she could apply anywhere. Erin completed her massage therapy courses at COCC in 2021 and started work that same year at a chiropractic office. She absolutely loves the treatment side of massage therapy and helping people get out of pain and to help people feel better in their bodies. Erin has learned and grown so much over the last 4½ years and is now ready and excited to apply her knowledge and skills in her own practice. See ad on page 3 for Serenity Now.

When Erin is not working, you can find her hanging out with her kids doing all sorts of fun things and going on weekend adventures. She loves the outdoors: hiking, camping, paddle boarding and fishing. In her downtime she enjoys reading, cooking, barbecuing and hanging out with the people she loves most.

A man went to the doctor for a checkup. After the examination, the doctor said, "There's nothing wrong with you. All you need is a little sun and air."

The patient answered, "Gee Doc, I just got married. We can't afford a son and heir yet!"

FIGHT LIKE TRENT FUNDRAISER

Most of you know that Trent, a local youngster, was involved in a tragic accident in December 2025 that took the life of his best friend and left Trent with significant medical challenges. He has been in and out of the hospital as well as medical rehab and is gaining strength daily. He is one determined young man!!! Let's help lighten the load his family has during this time. Whenever transport for Trent is needed for appointments - they're relying on medical transport since their vehicle isn't wheelchair capable - they need to find and purchase a wheelchair accessible van.

A Rummage Sale Fundraiser is being held (if a sale is happening you can find details in the yard sale section on page 5) - to help raise funds to purchase a van, accessorize as needed, other items that might be needed for Trent's care and to help with training for a service dog the family has received.

If you would like to make a monetary donation - (be sure to make checks out to Jennifer Debban - Trent's nana), you may mail to 3636 NW Rimrock Acres Lp, Prineville, OR 97754 or mail/drop off at Your Round-Up, 1590 SE Mountain View Dr, Prineville, OR 97754. Please be sure to indicate on the envelope "Fight Like Trent". Or use any of these QR codes

Shotgun Wedding

Seventy-five-year-old Thelma was invited to her friend's daughter's wedding. Thelma's daughter, Marilyn, offered to drive her so she wouldn't be stressed out over traffic and parking. Marilyn knew from experience that her mother was often confused about details, so she wanted to be sure Thelma arrived at the correct location on time.

Marilyn made a point on most occasions of asking her mother for specifics so there would be no misunderstanding. However, on this particular day, Marilyn was in a rush herself and did not take time to look at the invitation or to question her mother. She simply got into the car and relied on what Thelma had told her during a phone conversation.

As Marilyn pulled up to the corn of Main and Fifth Street in the neighboring town, she asked her mother which church was holding the wedding. There were two on the same block.

"Right there," Thelma said confidently. "The white church by the stoplight."

"You're sure?" Marilyn asked when she didn't see any familiar faces in front of the church.

"Of course, I'm sure," her mother smarted off. "We're not going to go through this again, are we? You never trust me anymore. I ought to know where my friend's daughter is getting married!"

Marilyn shrugged and pulled into the crowded parking lot. She circled three times before she found a spot. By then the two o'clock wedding was about to begin. Marilyn and Thelma hurried into the church foyer, signed the guest book, placed their gift on the table, and took their seats hastily.

As the music began, Thelma leaned over to her daughter. "I don't recognize a soul, do you?

"No, but I figured Corinne is your friend so I wouldn't necessarily recognize the people she invited."

Marilyn slid out of the pew and walked back to one of the ushers. "Who are the bride and groom?" she asked. "I think I'm at the wrong wedding."

"Mario and Eunice," the man whispered.

"My mother said the wedding for her friend's daughter was at the white church at 5th & Main. Now I'm confused," said Marilyn. "And we don't have the invitation with us."

"You might try the Lutheran Church at 5th & Manley," he said. "I'm a member there. It has a white exterior too."

Marilyn expressed her thanks, hurried to the pew where Thelma was sitting, tugged her mother's arm, and motioned to the front door. Thelma followed, confused and upset. "What are you doing?" she demanded when they stepped outside.

"We're at the wrong church, Mom. The bride's name is Eunice. Isn't Corinne's daughter's name Loretta?"

Thelma scurried to the parking lot, head down, muttering to herself. Marilyn shot out of the parking lot and headed across town to the "other" white church.

When they pulled up, Thelma looked at her daughter with a sheepish grin, "I knew one the streets started with an 'M.'" she said.

"Manley, Mom, Manley. Not Main. Lutheran not Methodist."

As they rushed in the front door five minutes before the two thirty wedding began, they nearly bumped into a woman with panic all over her face. "Excuse me," the woman pleaded. "I just found out I'm at the wrong wedding. I'm supposed to be at the one on 5th and Main, and I'm not sure....."

"Mario & Eunice's wedding?" asked Marilyn.

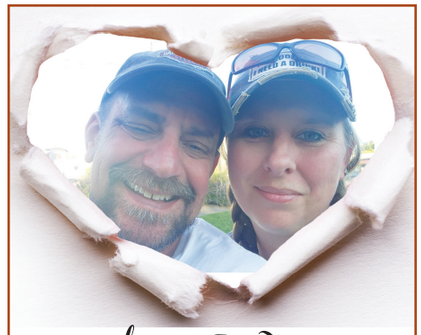

"Yes, how did you know?"

"We just came from there. It's at the other end of 5th."

Seconds before the bride came down the isle, Marilyn and Thelma squeezed into a crowded back pew and sank into exhaustion.

I should have asked, Marilyn lectured herself. I should have asked. And I hope Mario and Eunice enjoy the cake plate Mother intended for Loretta and Ted.

Two ants were sitting on the first tee of a country club when a not so gifted golfer was ready to tee off. One of the ants jumped on the ball and the second ant wanted to know why. The first one answered, "I've seen him play and it's the last place he'd think of hitting!"

Cascade View Family Dental is very excited to announce an addition to our team, Dr. Phil La Lande!!

Dr. Phil La Lande graduated from OHSU in 2018 and brings both skill and heart to his dental practice.
Dr. La Lande, his wife, Suzanne, and their beloved wiener dog, Winston, moved to Central Oregon two years ago.
When he is not caring for patients he loves to spend his time making pottery, enjoying the outdoors and seeking out the perfect street taco. His passion for both dentistry and the outdoors make him a warm and approachable addition to the Prineville community. We are very excited to welcome Dr. La Lande! Call today to make an appointment with Dr. La Lande.

An elderly man and his wife were watching television when he got up to go to the kitchen during a commercial. He said, "I'm going to get some ice cream,"

His wife said, "Well, while you're in there, would you bring me a dish of vanilla ice cream?"

He said, "Okay," to which she replied, "You'd better write that down so you don't forget."

He said, "That's such an easy thing to remember, I won't forget!"

She said, "Do you mind putting some chocolate syrup on it?"

Again, he said he would and again she said back, "Don't you think you should write that down so you don't forget?"

A little annoyed, he said, "I won't forget."

Then she said, "While you're at it, please put some whipped cream, nuts and a cherry on the top."

Again she said to write it down do he wouldn't forget, and he said, "I won't forget! You want vanilla ice cream with chocolate syrup, whipping cream, nuts and a cherry on it."

Surprised that he remembered, she said, "That's right!"

About a half hour later he came back and handed her two fried eggs.

She looked up at him and said, "Where have you been? Where's my toast?"

1176 NE Barnes Rd.
Prineville
$839,000

Built with exceptional quality by a local lumber broker who personally selected many of the materials, this custom home showcases timeless craftsmanship, thoughtful design, and stunning panoramic views. The flexible floor plan includes a daylight basement, ideal for multi-generational living, guests, or a private suite. The spacious kitchen offers abundant workspace, generous storage, and a large pantry. Outside, enjoy irrigation, established gardens, mature landscaping, a large shop, and plenty of parking. The fenced property features an impressive orchard with Bing and pie cherry trees, Honeycrisp and Gravenstein apples, apricot, pear, and grapevines. Major updates include a new roof (2023), furnace and A/C (2022), whole-house water softener and filtration system (2022), new drainfield (2025), septic tank (2005), and newer fencing. $10,000 seller credit available with an acceptable offer to apply toward closing costs, prepaids, or an interest rate buy-down, subject to lender guideline. mls# 220220816
