Bee hard at work!!

THANK YOU

TO EVERYONE THAT IS OUT FIGHTING THE FIRES THAT ARE ALL AROUND US. WE ARE PRAYING FOR YOUR SAFETY, HEALTH AND WELL-BEING AS YOU GIVE SO MUCH OF YOURSELF.

Kindness is a small, simple act.....Always remember that everyone has battles they are fighting and sometimes ONE simple act makes every amount of difference for someone. A kind word, a smile, holding the door open, paying for the coffee behind you, leaving a larger tip than usual.....what ever it is, do it with purpose. You never know when that one simple thing will be the saving grace for someone. And...as always....don't judge anyone who needs to mask up, sanitize or distance themselves in order to do their best for sickness prevention and/or spreading. Again, none of us know what someone else is going through!

What's Up

PLEASE NOTE: Events may be altered/canceled after the publication has gone to print. Your Round-Up makes every effort to provide accurate/precise information! ALSO, information is gathered from various sources, including public forums and is intended to give the community awareness/opportunity to participate.....not to harass, demean or interfere in events that differ from their preference. Always respect others in their gatherings

July 22 - Picnic in the Park

Pioneer Park, 6-8pm. Free, family friendly. Music by: Cover City. Community concerts presented by Crook County Foundations.

What's Around

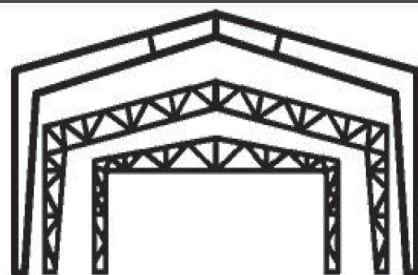

ATTN: Publication deadline is FRI, 2 pm for all ads/info to be submitted to be published in the following Wed print - no exceptions.

When responding to an ad - be mindful of the time you call/text - not everyone has the same schedule and when you call/text late at night, it is troublesome. Some people must keep their phones on during their sleep time for emergency contact purposes.....please be respectful. Thank you, Capri

There are FOUR Round-Up
publications.

Your Round-Up is open ALL Holidays

except for Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's and always closed 2 weeks at the end of every year.

I'd LOVE to be out galavanting in a hippy van (but I'll settle for my amazingly cool Jeep).....but I choose to keep a consistent and easy to remember schedule for YOU (see box to left).

Deadline is EVERY Friday, 2 pm - NO EXCEPTIONS.

If something comes up and I need to be closed, I try to give adequate notice.....sometimes emergencies, last-minute fishing trips with the hubs and/or the monthly adventure trips we take do happen quickly.

Dropbox, email, voicemail & website are ALWAYS available!

Thank you - Capri

Kudos to Nicholas Davila DiRienzo (Blade Sharpening - see ad on page 17). Admirable job on knives, old garden tools, shears. Thank you! ~ Martha M.

Thank you to the bicyclist riding West on 9th Street on July 11, 3:45 pm. He noticed a hazard in the road, stopped to remove it and went on his way. A good man! Thank you!
~ Martha M.

Kudos to Prineville businesses & individuals who are "Proud to be an American", who celebrated the 250th anniversary of our country's 4th of July. It was so great to see all the flags flying on the streets (thanks to who puts those up and takes them down). Also all the flags at the fairgrounds, and banner flags all over our country. It's nice to be part of a community who respects and appreciates our great USA and enjoys our freedoms! Great fireworks
~ Grateful Community Member

Special shout-out to Coldwell Realty....I really enjoy all the great sayings on your sign board - such as "Cowboy Pride" & "American Pride"! Thank you and keep it up!
~ Grateful Community Member

Thanks to Ivan at Watkins Excavation for doing a very good job on our neighbors rock wall and trenching and backfill at my house!
~ Steve

Right OR Wrong!???

A man is a person who, if a woman says, "Nevermind, I'll do it myself,"lets her.

A woman is a person who, if she says to a man, "Nevermind, I'll do it myself", and he lets her....gets mad.

A man is a person who, if a woman says, "Nevermind, I'll do it myself" ...lets her and she gets made and he says, "Now what are you mad about!?"

A woman is a person who, if she says to a man, "Nevermind, I'll do it myself", he lets her, she gets mad and he says, "Now what are you mad about?" ...says, "If you don't know, I'm not going to tell you!"

Charlie's wife, Aneta, had been after him for several weeks to paint the seat on their toilet. Finally, he got around to doing it while Aneta was out shopping. After finishing, he left to take care of another matter before she got back.

When she returned, she came in and undressed to take a shower. Before getting into the shower, she sat on the toilet. As she tried to stand up, she realized that the not-quite-dry epoxy paint had glued her to the toilet seat.

About that time, Charlie got home and realized her predicament. They both pushed and pulled without any success at all. Finally, in desperation, Charlie undid the toilet seat bolts. Aneta wrapped a sheet around herself and Charlie drove her to the ER.

The ER doctor got her into a position where he could study how to free her. Aneta tried to lighten the embarrassment of it all by saying, "Well, Doctor, I'll be you've never seen anything like this before."

The doctor replied, "Actually, I've seen lots of them. I just never saw one mounted and framed!"

What's Around

Crosswords, Word Search, Sudoku, etc are all place in Your Round-Up as space allows. I recognize that they are a favorite and I always do my very best to ensure they are in each publication. But, please know that if there is a time when you do not see one of them, or even sometimes none of them, it is simply a space issue. The way a print press works is not just adding a page here and there, it's adding four full pages at a time. I greatly appreciate each and every one of you and strive to give you the very best publication that I can, each and ever week. Thank you, Capri.

Reminder

Your Round-Up is an apolitical publication that endeavors to provide pertinent information about local community events. Your Round-Up announcements do not mean an endorsement. Instead, they're intended to let folks know what's happening in our community. Thank you, Capri

She's Got Game

On any given night for the 14 or so months of the year (yep, sarcasm) that correspond to baseball season, our TV is likely game is still running. The husband's attention has to be caught, and because the wife is put out, the husband may wish to run...."

He begged leniency on the grounds that is was "the top of the ninth." Here again, communication breaks down. For me, there's no understanding of a sport where the "top" of an inning is the first half. "Think of ladders," I said. "You start at the bottom and go to the top." He wasn't listening - his favorite player was up to bat.

The player struck out, and my husband said hurtful things about him. I feel bad for the players when they mess up. The ball he missed was going 90 mph, and it went all crooked. If I were the umpire, I would have laid a hand on the man's shoulder and said, "Take your base man. You were really, really close."

Last year my tolerance for my husband's devotion to sports, already threadbare, began to unravel. The baseball season was winding down, leading me to think that we could resume our normal adult activities, if only we had any. I came into the living room one Sunday to find him, a man who dismisses football as "a bore," engrossed in a Bronco's game. He wore a guilty grin. "Third and long, sweetie!"

It was around that time that I came across a book about sports "addiction." It said that for many men, their relationship with their team fulfills a need for intimacy. This got me right there in the whack-me zone. Was those players doing more for my husband than I was? No...I clean, cook, wash and pay the cable.

I confronted him. There was a NFL game on that day, but he wasn't watching. He was making banana bread. Though he denied the charges, he wouldn't rule out the possibility that it could be true. Then he asked if I wanted to go for a stroll in the neighborhood.

I decided to drop the sports addiction thing because, truly, he doesn't deserve the hassle (or I'm just tired of it). He's the bestest guy I know, and I mean that from the bottom of my heart, which is the part that comes before the top!!! (See, I do pay attention)!

to be tuned to a sports channel. In order to maintain some resemblance of personal contact with my husband during these months, I often sit beside him on the couch with a book. I don't mind the chatter of the sportscasters - my brain processes sports talk in the same way it processes paid political announcements and the cellphone conversations of strangers.

During each and every game, a middle-aged man in a navy blazer will say, "No attababies in that at-bat!" and his companion will chime in with, "It was right there, in the whack-me zone!" and it's as though they're not there.

Sometimes I find myself staring at the game anyway. I watch sports the way a dog will watch TV: I'm attracted by the motion and color, but no actual comprehension is taking place. My husband forgets that this is the case. He'll see me looking at the screen and assume I'm following the game and expect me to keep track of what happens while he goes to the kitchen for a refreshing beverage. Sometimes I'm able to bluff my way through it ("He had it right there in the whack-me zone, honey!"), but more often I'm forced to confess that I have not grasped the significance of anything I have just seen.

This is where it tends to get ugly. This is where he tries to turn me into, as the men in the blazers like to say, a serious student of the game. Plainly put, this cannot be done. You'd have more luck getting a pug to understand Jeopardy!

Take, for instance, the Infield Fly Rule, which begins in the breezy parlance of the Official Baseball Rules, like this: "The batter is out when it is declared, and the ball does not have to be caught. Because the batter is declared out, the runners are no longer forced to run, but they can run if they wish, at the risk of being put out...."

"What?" my husband asks. "What don't you get?" Apparently this language speaks to him in a way that it does not speak to me.

One night I decided to try putting it to work. It was 7pm and cutlets were growing cold. I cleared my throat. "The wife is declared put out when it is dinnertime and the

 The Founding Fathers were sitting around a table in 1776, working on the constitution. It had been a long day when Thomas Jefferson said, "Whew! It's getting rather warm in here, isn't it?"

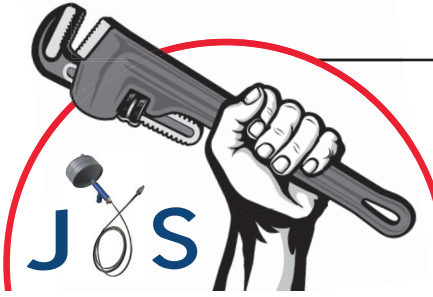

Ben Franklin replied, "Shall I open the window?"

"No, that's alright. I'll just take off my jacket and roll up my sleeves."

"Hey, that's a good idea. Why don't we include that in the constitution!?"

"What? That we're allowed to take our jackets off and roll up our sleeves while at work?"

"Yeah, but that doesn't sound very smooth. How about 'Everyone shall have the right to bare arms?'"

FIGHT LIKE TRENT FUNDRAISER

Most of you know that Trent, a local youngster, was involved in a tragic accident in December 2025 that took the life of his best friend and left Trent with significant medical challenges. He has been in and out of the hospital as well as medical rehab and is gaining strength daily. He is one determined young man!!! Let's help lighten the load his family has during this time. Whenever transport for Trent is needed for appointments - they're relying on medical transport since their vehicle isn't wheelchair capable - they've found a van, but it does need some accessories and updates.

A Rummage Sale Fundraiser is being held (info in yard sale section on page 5) - to help raise funds to finalize the van purchase, accessories as needed, other items that might be needed for Trent's care and to help with training for a service dog the family has received.

If you would like to make a monetary donation - (be sure to make checks out to Jennifer Debban - Trent's nana), you may mail to 3636 NW Rimrock Acres Lp, Prineville, OR 97754 or mail/drop off at Your Round-Up, 1590 SE Mountain View Dr, Prineville, OR 97754. Please be sure to indicate on the envelope "Fight Like Trent". Or use any of these QR codes

Poem

The Life of a Wrangler

Written and submitted by reader Raymond C Merriam

*My dad was a wrangler, of horses and cows; and I've done the same cause, he taught me how.
I've hunted and fished, I've done many things; most people dream about, but never begin.*

*A trapper I've been, every now and then; and dad taught me how, to do these things.
Like riding and roping, when branding is done; work for some, but to me it was just fun.*

*I was raised in the depression, as many had done; but never went hungry any day, not one.
We raised chickens, pigs and ducks and cows; even at times, worked behind a plow.*

*A wranglers life can be, one of two things;
a lonely life, or filled with siblings.*

*An only child I was meant to be;
but no brothers or sisters seem strange to me.*

*I've worked real hard, from the day I was born;
but never complained, just carried on.*

*My dad is gone, a sorrow for me;
for many thing he knew, I never did see.*

*My kids are now grown, and just like me;
and all that I know, in them you can see.
They think I'm so smart and maybe it's true; but I thank you dad for all that you knew!*

The Laws of Golfing

- #1: No matter how bad your last shot was, the worst is yet to come. This law does not expire on the 18th hole, since it has the supernatural tendency to extend over the course of a tournament, a summer, and eventually, a lifetime!
- #2: Your best round of golf will be followed almost immediately by your worst round ever. The probability of the latter increases with the number of people you tell about the former.
- #3: Brand new golf balls are water-magnetic. Though this cannot be proven in the lab, it is a known fact that the more expensive the golf ball, the greater its attraction to water.
- #4: Golf balls never bounce off trees back into play. If one does, the tree is breaking a law of the universe and needs cut down.
- #5: No matter what causes a golfer to muff a shot, all his playing partners must solemnly chant "you looked up," or invoke the wrath of the universe.
- #6: The higher a golfer's handicap, the more qualified he deems himself as an instructor.

- #7: Every par-three hole in the world has a secret desire to humiliate golfers. The shorter the hole, the greater its desire.
- #8: Topping a 3-iron is the most painful torture known to man.
- #9: Palm trees eat golf balls.
- #10: Sand is alive. If it isn't, how do you explain the way it works against you?

Cascade View Family Dental is very excited to announce an addition to our team, Dr. Phil La Lande!!

Dr. Phil La Lande graduated from OHSU in 2018 and brings both skill and heart to his dental practice. Dr. La Lande, his wife, Suzanne, and their beloved wiener dog, Winston, moved to Central Oregon two years ago.

When he is not caring for patients he loves to spend his time making pottery, enjoying the outdoors and seeking out the perfect street taco. His passion for both dentistry and the outdoors make him a warm and approachable addition to the Prineville community. We are very excited to welcome Dr. La Lande! Call today to make an appointment with Dr. La Lande.

County College Program 2026-2027

Crook County announces the return of County College and is now accepting applications from community members interested in gaining an in-depth understanding of county government operations.

County College is a free, multi-session educational program designed to provide participants with a behind-the-scenes look at the services and operations that keep Crook County running. Through presentations, facility tours, and interactive discussions, participants have the opportunity to meet with county staff and learn about the responsibilities and daily operations of numerous departments and offices, including Administration, Road Department, Weed Control, Landfill, Fairgrounds, Health and Veterans Services, Community Development, Airport, Sheriff's Office, District Attorney's Office, Juvenile Department, Clerk's Office, Assessor's Office and the Finance Department.

The 2026-2027 County College program is held once a month on Thursday evenings from 6-8pm, beginning Sept 3, 2026 and concluding Feb 11, 2027. Applicants must live, own a business, or work full-time in Crook County to be eligible to participate.

Applications may be completed by Tues, Sept 1, 2026, 5 pm. A complete program schedule and online application available at: <https://www.crookcountyor.gov/1661/Crook-County-College>.

Space is limited to 25 participants and applications accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Due to limited capacity, not all applicants may be selected.

For additional information, contact the Crook County Administration Office 541-447-6555 or email administration@crookcountyor.gov.

Remember old folks are worth a fortune, with silver in their hair, gold in their teeth, stones in their kidneys, lead in their feet and gas in their stomachs.

I have become a little older since I saw you last and a few changes have come into my life since then. Frankly, I have become quite a frivolous old gal. I am seeing five gentlemen everyday.

As soon as I wake up, Will Power helps me get out of bed. Then I go see John. Then Charlie Horse comes along, and when he is here he takes a lot of my time and attention. When he leaves, Arthur Ritis shows up and stays the rest of the day. He doesn't like to stay in one place very long, so he takes me from joint to joint. After such a busy day I'm really tired and glad to go to bed with Ben Gay. What a life!!

p.s. The preacher came to call the other day. He said at my age I should be thinking about the hereafter. I told him, Oh, I do all the time. No matter where I am, in the parlor, upstairs, in the kitchen or down in the basement, I ask myself...what am I here after??

I decided to let my 5-year-old granddaughter come with me to deliver Meals-on-Wheels lunches to shut-in seniors. She was intrigued by the various appliances of old age. At one of our stops, I found her staring at a pair of false teeth soaking in a glass. As I braced for the inevitable barrage of questions, she merely turned and whispered, "Nanny, the Tooth Fairy will never believe this!"
