Your Round-Up is open ALL Holidays

except for Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's and always closed 2 weeks at the end of every year.

I'd LOVE to be out galavanting in a hippy van (but I'll settle for my amazingly cool Jeep).....but I choose to keep a consistent and easy to remember schedule for YOU (see box to left).

Deadline is EVERY Friday, 2 pm - NO EXCEPTIONS.

If something comes up and I need to be closed, I try to give adequate notice.....sometimes emergencies, last-minute fishing trips with the hubs and/or the monthly adventure trips we take do happen quickly.

Dropbox, email, voicemail & website are ALWAYS available!
Thank you - Capri

One Street Over

Construction crews have a funny way of changing our plans. One road closes....and suddenly we're taking a street we've never driven before. Sometimes that's frustrating.

Sometimes.....it's exactly what we needed. A different bakery shop. A neighborhood we'd never explored. A local business we never knew existed. It's funny how often life's best discoveries happen that way. Not because we planned them, but because something quietly invited us to take another route.

I've often wondered how many remarkable places we've driven past simply because we've always taken the same road. The same route to work. The same entrance into town. The same parking space. The same routine. We become so good at arriving.....that we sometimes forget to explore. Perhaps that's why an unexpected detour can become an unexpected gift. Not because we're lost. Because we're finally looking around.

Maybe this week.....choose one street over. Not because you must. Simply because you can. You never know what you'll discover. A new business. A familiar face. A quiet neighborhood. Or perhaps....a reminder that the journey has always had more to offer than the destination.

Sharon Elaine Cox

November 4, 1939 - August 13, 2026

Sharon Elaine Cox, 86, of Prineville, Oregon, passed away on August 13, 2026 after a brief illness. Born on November 4, 1939, in The Dalles, Oregon, Sharon was a true Central Oregonian who spent nearly her entire life in Prineville.

Sharon graduated from Crook County High School with the Class of '57. She was married to William Koethke from 1957 to 1964 and later to Rusty Cox from 1966 to 2011.

Sharon worked at the Prineville Medical Clinic for years, was employed at Brightwood Millworks and drove a school bus for decades, finally hanging up her keys at the age of 83. Even then, retirement didn't slow her down. She spent her free time delivering Meals on Wheels to neighbors in need and serving at the Senior Center, keeping at it until just recently

When she wasn't working or volunteering, Sharon could be found with her dogs by her side and anywhere from one to five goats in the corral.

Sharon is survived by her sons, Rory Cox and Doug Cox; her daughter, Shelly Marsh, her step-daughter Wendy Chancellor; her sister, Betty Jo Hamilton; and her brother, Robert Holton. She also had six grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren.

A Celebration of Life will take place at the Bowman Museum Event Center 246 N. Main Prineville, OR on August 29th at 4:30 pm. All who knew and loved Sharon are welcome to gather and share memories.

FIGHT LIKE TRENT FUNDRAISER

Most of you know that Trent, a local youngster, was involved in a tragic accident in December 2025 that took the life of his best friend and left Trent with significant medical challenges. He has been in and out of the hospital as well as medical rehab and is gaining strength daily. He is one determined young man!!! Let's help lighten the load his family has during this time. Whenever transport for Trent is needed for appointments - they're relying on medical transport since their vehicle isn't wheelchair capable - they need to find and purchase a wheelchair accessible van.

A Rummage Sale Fundraiser is being held (if a sale is happening you can find details in the yard sale section on page 5) - to help raise funds to purchase a van, accessorize as needed, other items that might be needed for Trent's care and to help with training for a service dog the family has received.

If you would like to make a monetary donation - (be sure to make checks out to Jennifer Debban - Trent's nana), you may mail to 3636 NW Rimrock Acres Lp, Prineville, OR 97754 or mail/drop off at Your Round-Up, 1590 SE Mountain View Dr, Prineville, OR 97754. Please be sure to indicate on the envelope "Fight Like Trent". Or use any of these QR codes

9/11 Memorial Returns to Prineville: 25th Anniversary of 9/11

From Sept 10 thru Sept 13, 3 pm, a 9/11 memorial display will be at the Town Plaza and Courthouse lawn for its 3rd year. The display features canvas prints, police officer memorial, flag of heroes, original newspapers from 9/11 as well as 2977 flags representing the lives lost in the 9/11 attacks.

Roland and Mona Glade, Prineville residents, generously share this amazing display of memorabilia in memory of the events of 9/11. Their friend, Chuck Pore created and presented this display on the Courthouse lawn in Lakeview, every year. Roland & Mona, along with others, helped with the event each year. Church passed away on his 65th birthday in 2020 and his wife, Jenn, gifted the Glades with Chucks project.

Roland and Mona were volunteer EMTs and structural firefighters for the Lakeview area for many years until they retired. Roland is a retired fire chief for Thomas Creek/Westside RFPD.

The Glades believe it is important to continually bring to the forefront the memory of the tragic happenings of 9/11. They consider it a privilege to share this significant historical event with the community. Roland and Mona are grateful for the generous support and sponsorship provided by their new sponsor, God's Country Photography, as well as the many volunteers and civic organizations that generously helped with setup/tear down last year.

Thank you to the Prineville Police Department, Crook County Sheriff's Department, Crook County Fire & Rescue, Crook County Search and Rescue and the City of Prineville.

* Note from Capri: Unlike the rest of the world that was watching the horror unfold on television, I was prepping for a surgery that would save my unborn son's life. The surgery was scheduled for Noon. I snoozed all morning and I vaguely remember whispers and could feel a bit of tension in the room - I chalked it up to the impending unknown of the surgery and that my family might be a little stressed. I remember waking up in recovery hearing the nurses whispering "It was Dr. Youngren's father-inlaw" .... "She's left now to try and get her family to New Jersey".....I had no idea, for a few hours anyway, of the depth of those whispers and what it meant for America.....*

The surgeon who performed that surgery (Dr Sonya Youngren, MD) did so despite the fact that her family had received extremely tragic news. Her father-in-law was on one of the flights of that day and, obviously, didn't survive. Despite that news and the fact that she and her family were trying to secure transportation to get back to New Jersey to be with her mother-in-law (and family).....she still did our surgery that allowed my pregnancy to proceed another 4 weeks, allowing my son a fighting chance at life.

Visiting this memorial allowed me to really see, in person, the great impact and sacrifice of all our fallen civilians, service personnel, first responder, pilots, passengers, etc of such a senseless act. I urge you all to take time, hopefully as a family, to visit this memorial and remember our unified actions as AMERICANs!

Two Instances of Not–so–Smart Criminals

A thief and his sidekick seemed pretty savvy when they entered a Wal*Mart and swept the shelves of $2,000 worth of digital cameras. A store worker found only an abandoned shopping cart filled with empty camera boxes.

Meanwhile, the store's surveillance tape looked like it was going to be useless: the video showed the suspects, a man and a woman, but the images were too grainy to identify them.

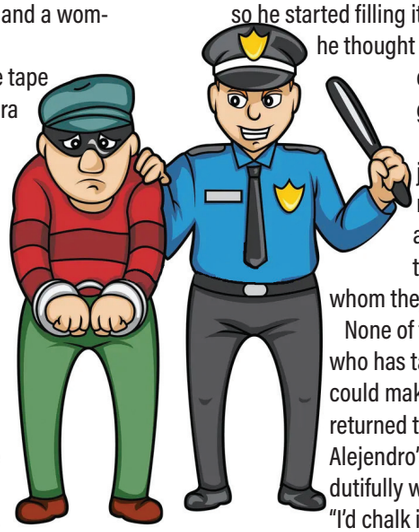

Then security officials noticed that, at one point, the tape showed the woman picked up a demonstration camera that was chained to a counter, and pointed it at her partner. No, she couldn't have....but, YES, she did!

The stores manager called over the the Wal*Mart photo center and asked about the camera. The guy operating the photo center said they were in luck. The camera had batteries and a disc. What's more, it was hooked up to a printer. All they had to do was press the print button to see exactly what the picture on the disc looked like.

Out popped a clear, color image of a balding man with a mustache, looking straight at the camera. The police couldn't have asked for a better mug shot.

Shortly after the robbery, Police Detective Sgt. Paul, said he thought the couple "Will be kind of surprised. I'm sure they thought there was nothing in the camera - likely never even thought about it."

No sooner did police go public with the photograph than calls poured in to the tip line, identifying the man as 36-year-old James. Less than three weeks later, detectives arrested James at his home and charged him with grand larceny.

It may tough for Alejendro to clear himself of charges that he robbed a pizza parlour after allegedly leaving behind a crucial piece of evidence. According to prosecutors, the 23-year-old lentered the parlour, ordered a pie and requested a job application. "The cashier immediately gave him an application and a pen, so he started filling it out," said prosecutor Frank. "Then, when he thought the moment was right, he lifted his shirt, exposed the butt of a firearm, and told her to give him all of the money."

After stuffing over $200 in his pocket, Alejandro hustled out to a waiting car, authorities reported. But a witness followed the gunman and jotted down the license plate. An easy trace of that number let police to Alejandro, whom they found sitting at home.

None of that has made it easy for the public defender who has taken on the case. But the evidence left behind could make his job nearly impossible. When police returned to the pizza parlour after the arrest, they found Alejandro's job application still on the counter. He had dutifully written down on it his real name and address. "I'd chalk it up to either inexperience or plain 'ole lack of smarts," said the prosecutor.

Alejandro pleaded not guilty.

An elderly lady had spent some time in the hospital but was finally sent home. Soon after that she was visited by her minister and while he was there, he saw a little dish of peanuts on the table in the living room. As they sat there talking, he kept eating the nuts until they were all gone. As he started to leave he turned and said, "I'm sorry I ate all of your peanuts."

"Oh that's alright," she replied. "I couldn't eat them anyway. You see, my teeth are bad, and it took me all the morning just to suck the chocolate off of them!"
