LIFE IS UNPREDICTABLE

AND YOU NEVER KNOW WHAT IS COMING NEXT. DON'T EVER GET TOO COMFORTABLE. ALWAYS BE READY TO CHANGE. EMBRACE WHATEVER COMES YOUR WAY WITH GRACE!

Kindness is a small, simple act..... Always remember that everyone has battles they are fighting and sometimes ONE simple act makes every amount of difference for someone. A kind word, a smile, holding the door open, paying for the coffee behind you, leaving a larger tip than usual.....what ever it is, do it with purpose. You never know when that one simple thing will be the saving grace for someone. And...as always....don't judge anyone who needs to mask up, sanitize or distance themselves in order to do their best for sickness prevention and/or spreading. Again, none of us know what someone else is going through!

Your Round-Up is open ALL Holidays

except for Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's and always closed 2 weeks at the end of every year.

I'd LOVE to be out galavanting in a hippy van (but I'll settle for my amazingly cool Jeep).....but I choose to keep a consistent and easy to remember schedule for YOU (see box to left).

Deadline is EVERY Friday, 2 pm - NO EXCEPTIONS.

If something comes up and I need to be closed, I try to give adequate notice.....sometimes emergencies, last-minute fishing trips with the hubs and/or the monthly adventure trips we take do happen quickly.

Dropbox, email, voicemail & website are ALWAYS available!

Thank you - Capri

The Saddle That Opened a Pathway

Not long ago, I should have put the cardiologist before the horse. Instead, I bought the horse and then told the cardiologist.

His warning was enough. With a defibrillator, pacemaker and three wires attached to my heart, one hard fall from a horse could cause serious trouble.

So, the saddle went up for sale on Marketplace.

The young man who bought it was pleased as punch. He'd found his perfect saddle. During our conversation, he mentioned that he was starting his own welding and fabrication business and was willing to tackle just about anything.

A month later, I remembered that conversation. We needed repairs to our pond irrigation piping. I called him, and he did an incredible job.

About a year later, I called again. This time, we needed arena gates fabricated. His work was beyond good. That led to another project, heavy-duty entry gates for the property. Even the neighbors were complimenting his craftsmanship.

Somewhere along the way, a young man buying a saddle became a trusted craftsman and a friend.

I've walked the paved trails of Barnes Butte plenty of times, but this pathway didn't require hiking boots. It started with a horse, a saddle and a conversation about a young man's new business.

And the nice thing about this particular pathway? Whenever there's another project, we're only a phone call away.

Wonder, What's Next?

Thank you to whomever did a trash pick-up North of Prineville on Sunday, October 4. It is wonderful to see the beauty of our community without the trash laying around. We should all do our part! We could use more trash picker-uppers!

Cascade View Family Dental is very excited to announce an addition to our team, Dr. Phil La Lande!!

Dr. Phil La Lande graduated from OHSU in 2018 and brings both skill and heart to his dental practice.

Dr. La Lande, his wife, Suzanne, and their beloved wiener dog, Winston, moved to Central Oregon two years ago.

When he is not caring for patients he loves to spend his time making pottery, enjoying the outdoors and seeking out the perfect street taco. His passion for both dentistry and the outdoors make him a warm and approachable addition to the Prineville community. We are very excited to welcome Dr. La Lande! Call today to make an appointment with Dr. La Lande.

How to submit information: Contact/submission info on page 2

Information must be received by Thurs, Nov 5, 2 pm

This is FREE.

My colleagues and I peppered the job candidate with a litany of questions regarding an opening in our department. We were all please with his answers until we got to the end of the interview.

When we asked the candidate whether he had any questions for us in return, he replied, "Yes, I do have one. What job am I interviewing for?"

BEAUTICIAN OR MAGICIAN??

Lana and Lou walked through their hair salon one last time. Lana began weeping. They had owned the place for 50 years and had served a clientele that spanned the county. In recent years they had added a service for seniors with special needs, including washing and styling and manicures in a separate room suited to people who needed a wheelchair or walker. That brought even more customers into their attractive shop on the west side of town. But now they were not only seniors themselves, but elderly seniors and running a business had become too much. It was time to sell the shop, retire, and relax.

They didn't worry about their own beauty needs because they could still do each other's hair. In fact, Lana had depended on Lou for such help throughout their marriage.

Lana pulled a photo album from the shelf above her station and began paging through it, pointing to one hairstyle after another and chuckling when she saw the many changes that had occurred in the last five decades.

Lou joined her and had a few laughs himself. "Those were some get-ups," he said, "And we went right along with it. Amazing."

Curly perms, bangs and bobs, hippy hair-dos, and butch cuts. The book included a wide range of styles that had come and gone.

Lou reached for the coffee cup on the table at his station. He read the wording and burst out laughing: I'M A BEAUTICIAN, NOT A MAGICIAN.

"Do you remember who gave it to you?" Lana asked.

"Marybelle Simpson," said Lana. "You got so upset with her one day that you let it out. 'What do you think I am, a magician?' you asked. Marybelle couldn't be happy no matter what you did." Lana paused for a moment and smiled. "For Christmas that year she gave you this cup. She was so excited about it. It was one of those items a person just happens on. You both had a good laugh."

"Never did like the beauty business," Lou mumbled.

"What did you say?" Lana's eyes revealed her surprise.

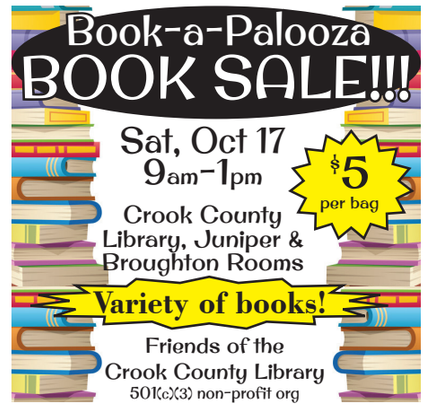

Lou raised his voice, "I never liked doing hair....never."

Lana was shocked. "What are you saying? Now you tell me...after all these years? What did you want to do? And why didn't you speak up?"

"I wanted to paint. You know, watercolors. But I figured I couldn't support a family on it."

"I'm upset thinking you were unhappy all these years, and you never owned up to it. What a waste." Lana's heart sagged.

"Oh it wasn't a waste, dear," said Lou with a twinkle in his eye. "I got to spend every day with you."

Maybe you said a prayer, a phone call, email, text message, FaceBook message, a random act of kindness or sent a card. Maybe you provided a meal, food, helped with the service(s), gave tokens of love, a donation to the family or other memorial, flowers or just a hug.

Whatever it was, we will be forever grateful for every act of love and kindness that has been shared with us - and that continues to be shown.

With grateful hearts we say THANK YOU!

Just as our neighbor was experiencing a minor household emergency, the telephone rang. She picked up the receiver and hurriedly exclaimed, "I can't talk now....our pet mouse is loose in the kitchen and I have to catch him before the cat does!"

She let the receiver dangle from the hook for a good five minutes. When she finally got back to the phone, it was only to hear an unfamiliar voice on the other end say, "Excuse me lady, I knew I had a wrong number, but I just had to find out....who got the mouse?"

Crosswords, Word Search, Sudoku, etc are all placed in Your Round-Up as space allows. I recognize that they are a favorite and I do my very best to ensure they are in each publication. Please know that if there is a time when one or more aren't seen, it is a space issue. I cannot simply add a page here and there - it is four full pages at a time. I greatly appreciate each and every one of you and strive to give you the very best publication that I can, each and every week. Thank you, Capri. (YRUufn)

The Fall Family and Julie Starr invite you to attend:

A Celebration of Life for

Jason McCalla Fall

Saturday, October 24 • 1 pm
Missionary Baptist Church,
1870 NW Riverland Loop, Prineville.

Any gifts or donations in Jason's memory should be directed to The Humane Society of the Ochocos, 1280 SW Tom McCall Rd, Prineville, OR 97754. Jason loved his four-legged friends very much and raised rescue dogs and cats. His dog Stryker and cat Eve still reside with Julie.

Margaret Louise (Fine) (Welch) Weaver

November 9, 1936 - September 2, 2026

Margaret Weaver was born on November 9, 1936, in Redmond, Oregon. She passed away on September 2, 2026, just two months shy of her 90th birthday, in Federal Way, Washington.

She was the daughter of Harold Fine and Thelma Ashley Fine. Margaret grew up as one of five children, on a farm in Antelope, Oregon. She attended schools in Moro, Shaniko, Antelope and Madras. She boarded away from home to attend school and was a true Central Oregon girl who valued education. She graduated from Madras High School in 1954.

In 1955 Margaret married Wesley Charles Welch in Antelope, Oregon. For a short time, they had a farm and raised sheep in Madras, Oregon. While Wes was in the military and stationed overseas, Margaret lived with her girlfriend and worked in Portland, Oregon. After Wes was done serving, they moved to Dayton, Washington. Three children were born to this marriage: Charlene (Martin) Lund of Cheney, Washington, Sharon Welch of Dayton, Washington, and John (Lisa) Welch of Auburn, Washington.

During her time in Dayton, Margaret worked for Montgomery Wards and the Dayton Hospital. She was a member of the Catholic Church and loved to sew, quilt and work in her garden. She loved her Dayton friends and yet, to be closer to her family, she relocated to Prineville, Oregon in 1976.

In June of 1995 Margaret married Keith Weaver. Marrying Keith expanded the family and she was blessed with bonus children, grandchildren and eventually great grandchildren. They were married until Keith passed away in July 2021. Margaret worked for Bishop Tires in Prineville until she retired. Margaret enjoyed retirement, spending time with Keith, enjoying her hobbies and attending many family activities and celebrations over the years.

Just before her 89th birthday Margaret moved to Auburn, Washington to be near her son and family. Margaret was preceded in death by her first husband Wesley Welch and her second husband Keith Weaver. She is survived by her siblings: Buzz (Judy) Fine of Fort Rock, Oregon, Darlene Pollock of Bend, Oregon, Lewis (Jeri) Fine of Madras, Oregon and Betty Bushong of Prineville, Oregon. In addition to her children and bonus children, Margaret is survived by many grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews and their spouses.

In honor of Margaret, donations to the Prineville Senior Center, (180 NE Belknap Street, Prineville, OR 97754) are appreciated. The senior center was a valuable resource that allowed Margaret to live independently for several years.

Margaret's ashes will be buried with her mother at a family plot at Mt. Jefferson Memorial Park in Madras, Oregon. A graveside service and celebration of life will be held in the spring of 2027.

I was on the couch nursing my newborn when my 3-year-old daughter plopped down to watch. Seeing this as a good teaching moment, I explained how mothers feed their babies. My daughter's eyes grew wider with each detail.

"She's drinking milk?" she asked. "In the living room?"

My friend Allison adopted a stray cat and took it to the vet to be neutered.

"I am about 90% certain he's been fixed already," the vet said.

"Well, how can I be 100% certain?" Allison asked.

"You'll need to wait to see if he does any 'male' things."

"He already lies on the couch all day," Allison said. "If he starts hogging the remote, I'll bring him in."
