Your Round-Up is open ALL Holidays

except for Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's and always closed 2 weeks at the end of every year.

I'd LOVE to be out galavanting in a hippy van (but I'll settle for my amazingly cool Jeep).....but I choose to keep a consistent and easy to remember schedule for YOU (see box to left).

Deadline is EVERY Friday, 2 pm - NO EXCEPTIONS.

If something comes up and I need to be closed, I try to give adequate notice.....sometimes emergencies, last-minute fishing trips with the hubs and/or the monthly adventure trips we take do happen quickly.

Dropbox, email, voicemail & website are ALWAYS available!
Thank you - Capri

Stick-Built Home & Shop

Welcome to PATHWAYS™

Have you ever noticed that two people can travel the same road and come home with completely different memories? One remembers arriving. The other remembers the little coffee shop they unexpectedly discovered along the way.

PATHWAYS™ begins with a simple idea...
Life isn't just about WHERE we're going.
It's also about WHAT we notice while getting there!

Every day we follow familiar roads, visit familiar businesses and move through familiar routines. Yet, hidden within those everyday moments are stories, opportunities and discoveries we often miss...simply because we're too focused on getting somewhere else.

Each week, I'll share a brief observation about movement, community, discovery and the everyday pathways that quietly shape our lives. My hope is simple; that you'll begin noticing the remarkable things that have been here all along.

Who know....maybe next week you'll take one street over. Maybe you'll stop at a business you've driven past a hundred times. Maybe you'll discover that the journey itself has been trying to tell you something!!!

What's Next?

Musical Hit Parade

Monique was invited to present a program of piano music at a retirement home. She selected popular songs of the 1930s and 1940s, some favorite hymns and patriotic numbers that she thought the residents could relate to.

"While playing hymns," said Monique, "It felt like someone was standing behind me. I glanced back to see a frail, silver-haired man glancing over my shoulder, much like my father used to do when I played and sang his favorite songs at home."

Monique nodded and smiled, encouraging the elderly gentleman to join in. He smiled back and started singing along in a soft, voice. He knew every word of the venerable hymn. "His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me," we sang.

"The audience sat in silence as he asked me to play more and more of his favorites. There was no question that he was having a wonderful time singing the hymns of his youth."

He was not the only one having a good time. Monique's eyes glistened as she played and recalled the happy memories of her childhood. "It was pure joy for me," she added. "I felt as if I were home again, hearing Daddy singing his special songs while I played the piano for him."

Soon Monique, the man beside her and the entire roomful of white and silver-haired men and women, some in wheelchairs, others seated at tables, some hobbling across the room with the help of a walker or cane, joined in until the retirement home rocked with the sounds of praise and thankfulness to the God they loved and served.

Monique saw many of the caregivers with tears streaming down their faces. Later they told her that many patients had memory loss, seeing them singing old forgotten songs brought such joy to their hearts.

Poem

Your kiss, warm
like the first sip
of a delicious coffee
a sugary goodbye to start my day.

The very cute assistant of the ophthalmologist was examining my 20-year-old grandson when out of the blue she said, "You must really work out."

"Well, yes, I do," he said. "I run and lift weights. Thanks for noticing!"

"Oh, no, you misunderstood. You have popped blood vessels in your eyes. We see that with people who work out!" she said, smiling sweetly!

What's Around

Crosswords, Word Search, Sudoku, etc are all placed in Your Round-Up as space allows. I recognize that they are a favorite and I do my very best to ensure they are in each publication. But, please know that if there is a time when you do not see one of them, or even sometimes none of them, it is simply a space issue. I cannot simply add a page here and there - it is four full pages at a time. I greatly appreciate each and every one of you and strive to give you the very best publication that I can, each and every week. Thank you, Capri. (YRUufn)

Upon retiring as church secretary, I gave my replacement a Rolodex brimming with all the contact info she would likely need for the job.

One day, she texted me asking for a name that was to be included in the newsletter. I responded simply, "Rolodex."

A week later, the church newsletter announced the 20th wedding anniversary of Rolodex and Kathy Thomas.
