Your Round-Up is open ALL Holidays

except for Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's and always closed 2 weeks at the end of every year.

I'd LOVE to be out galavanting in a hippy van (but I'll settle for my amazingly cool Jeep).....but I choose to keep a consistent and easy to remember schedule for YOU (see box to left).

Deadline is EVERY Friday, 2 pm - NO EXCEPTIONS.

If something comes up and I need to be closed, I try to give adequate notice.....sometimes emergencies, last-minute fishing trips with the hubs and/or the monthly adventure trips we take do happen quickly.

Dropbox, email, voicemail & website are ALWAYS available!
Thank you - Capri

The Door You Never Noticed

Have you ever walked past the same building so many times that you stopped actually seeing it? Something like a storefront. You know where it is. You may even know what street its on.But one day, you notice the door. Maybe the color changed. Maybe the window display became illuminated. Maybe the newly painted door is open, and you suddenly wonder, "What's actually in there?" So, you take a look. And there it is.

A business you didn't know existed. An owner with a story. Something handcrafted. Something interesting. Maybe something you didn't need at all and suddenly decided you couldn't live without. (We've all been there.)That's one of the funny things about pathways. Sometimes nothing really changed. We did. We became curious enough to look.

This week, try a pathway day. Take a pathway you know and try noticing one door you've gone past without really seeing it. You don't have to go inside. Just look. You might discover something in your own community that you've been walking past all along.

Some tourists from the big city were driving through a quaint old country town when they noticed a field full of cows and a farmer who was taking all the round bales of hay, loading them into a wagon and driving them away. Curious as to why the farmer was taking away the cows' food, they stopped and asked him about it. He said, "Well, the country agent came by here and told us to pick 'em all up. He said the cows weren't getting a square meal!"

A man phoned his adult daughter and told her the bad news: He and his wife were getting a divorce.

"But why, Dad? What happened?" She asked.

"I'm miserable," he said, "and I'm leaving tonight!"

"Don't do anything. I'll fly over tomorrow!"

"Ok, why don't you bring Jeff and the kids too? Your mom will want to see them."

They hung up and the man turned to his wife, "Honey! It worked! They'll be here tomorrow!"

We Can All Use A Friend....

Submitted by local reader, Kate

A minister passing through his church in the middle of the day,
Decided to pause by the alter and see who had come to pray.

Just then the back door opened, a man came down the aisle,
The minister frowned as he saw the man hadn't shaved in a while.

His shirt was kinda' shabby and his coat was worn and frayed,
The man knelt, he bowed his head, then rose and walked away.

In the days that followed, each noon time came this chap,
Each time he knelt just for a moment, a lunch pail in his lap.

Well, the minister's suspicions grew, with robbery a main fear,
He decided to stop the man and ask him, "Watcha' doin' here?"

The old man said he worked down the road, lunch was half an hour,
Lunchtime was his prayer time, for finding strength and power.

"I stay only moments, see, 'cause the factory is so far away;
As I kneel here talkin' to the Lord, this is kinda' what I say.
"I just came again to tell you, Lord, how happy I've been,
Since we found each other's friendship and you took away my sin.
I don't know much of how to pray,
but I think about you every day, so Jesus, this is Jim checkin' in!"

The minister, feeling foolish, told Him that was fine,
He told the man he was welcome to come pray just anytime.

Time to go, Jim smiled, said, "Thanks" and hurried to the door,
The minister knelt at the alter, he'd never done it before.

His cold heart melted, warmed with love, met with Jesus there,
As the tears flowed, in his heart, he repeated old Jim's prayer.
"I just came again to tell you, Lord, how happy I've been,
Since we found each other's friendship and you took away my sin.
I don't know much of how to pray,
but I think about you every day, so Jesus, this is me checkin' in!"

Past noon one day, the minister noticed that old Jim hadn't come,
As more days passed without Jim, he began to worry some.

At the factory, he asked about him, learning he was ill,
The hospital staff was worried, but he'd given them a thrill.

The week that Jim was with them, brought changes in the ward,
His smiles, a joy contagious, changed people...his reward.

The head nurse couldn't understand why Jim was so glad,
When no flowers, calls or cards came, not a visitor he had.

9/11 MEMORIAL DISPLAY

For the 3rd year, a 9/11 memorial display will be at the Town Plaza and Courthouse lawn from Sept 10 through Sept 13, 3 pm. During the day there will be someone on hand if you have questions about the display, or at night it will be lit up with lighting.

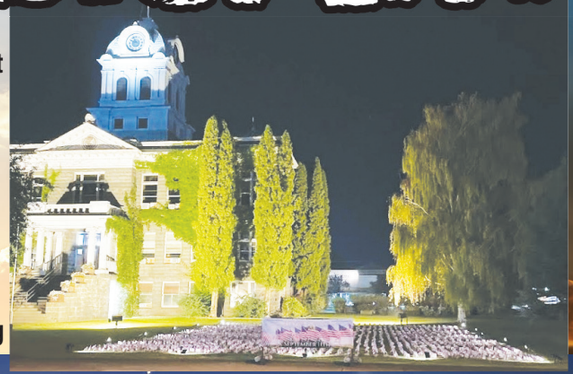

The display features canvas prints, police officer memorial, flag of heroes, original newspapers from 9/11 as well as 2977 flags representing lives lost in the 9/11 attacks. Roland and Mona Glade, who moved to Prineville in 2016, proudly share this display with the community.

Chuck Pore was a Lake County Deputy Sheriff and American Patriot. This display was one of his passions, since the 10th anniversary of 9/11, he created and presented this on the Courthouse lawn every year in Lakeview, Oregon. Roland and Mona, along with others, helped with the event every year. Chuck passed away on his 65th birthday in 2020. His wife, Jenn, gifted the Glades with Chucks project.

Roland and Mona were volunteer EMTs and structural firefighters for the Lakeview area for many years until they retired. Roland is a retired fire chief for Thomas Creek/Westside RFPD.

The Glades believe it is important to continually bring to the forefront the memory of the tragic happenings of 9/11. They consider it a privilege to share this significant historical event with the community. Roland and Mona are grateful for the generous support and sponsorship provided by God's Country Photography. They are grateful for the support from the community as well.

I am 87 years old. When I looked in the mirror 60 years ago, I saw a rather pretty young woman. Now I see a wrinkly old woman staring back at me. The problem is, they don't make mirrors like they used to!

Crosswords, Word Search, Sudoku, etc are all placed in Your Round-Up as space allows. I recognize that they are a favorite and I do my very best to ensure they are in each publication. Please know that if there is a time when one or more aren't seen, it is a space issue. I cannot simply add a page here and there - it is four full pages at a time. I greatly appreciate each and every one of you and strive to give you the very best publication that I can, each and every week. Thank you, Capri. (YRUufn)

My mother and father were driving when she was pulled over by the police. Mom was in a hurry and told the officer so.

"I understand ma'am," he said, "But I have to ticket anyone over 55."

Mom was beside herself. "That's discrimination!" she shouted.

The officer calmly explained, "I meant the speed limit."

Hey you...
Yes, YOU!!!!

This year has been particularly difficult for so many. It's time to bring happiness, light and joy!!!

We have some amazing community members that have given the opportunity to do just that. All that YOU have to do is start nominating someone that could benefit from a good 'ole pick-me-up!!!!!

Beginning on the 1st of the Sept, Oct, Nov & Dec - drop off your nomination by the 20th of each month (2 drop locations: Fae Fire 449 NW 3rd St, Ste A, Prineville OR Your Round-Up 1590 SE Mountain View Dr, Prineville) and we'll do the rest. Our team will choose a recipient and they will receive a sweet gift that has been specifically created by Chelle at Fae Fire.

Nomination must include: name, address, phone & email for nominee and person submitting, along with a brief explanation of "why" this person is being nominated!
